"Resort to Love": The 4th movie filmed at Constance Prince Maurice

Constance Prince Maurice is positioned as the perfect location for the shooting of exceptional films! And the producers would not say the other way around. This jewel of the group Constance Hotels & Resorts hosted the shooting of a fourth international film, "Resort to Love", on its property between October and December 2020. This cinematographic work produced by Alicia Keys and which was released on Netflix on Thursday July 29 2021, mobilized around 350 employees to ensure the proper running of the operations, services and shooting as well as for figuration in the movie. Let's take you back to behind the scenes of this collaboration.

"Everywhere the camera points is a wonderful frame..." Jeremy Walker, co-producer of "Resort to Love", fell in love with the luxurious property, Constance Prince Maurice, from the moment he arrived at the hotel, located in the east coast of Mauritius. Renowned for its high standards, Constance Prince Maurice uses its know-how and the local art of living for the realization of large-scale film projects. It has so far hosted four international film shoots, including "Depression and Friends" by Dominique Farrugia in 2012, "Calendar Girls" in 2014 by Madhur Bhandarkar, "Lovers" by Nicole Garcia in 2019 and "Resort to Love" by Alicia Keys in 2020.

"We regularly organize various international events, such as culinary festivals and golf championships, bringing together high profiles from these various worlds. We have thus acquired knowledge and in-depth experience in the management of major events. For the film "Resort to Love", Constance Prince Maurice fulfilled all their production specifications and conditions for the shooting."

With an exclusive agreement for the site, logistics adapted to the needs of the film crew, the actors and their families. The shooting also took place in strict compliance with the sanitary protocol of the American production, which we adapted to ours", explains Nadine Comarmond, Head of Groups and Incentives at Constance Hotels & Resorts.

Constance Prince Maurice had turned into a film studio during these three months while the hotel restaurant was transformed into a New York bar.

"It was really, really intense! It allowed us to discover the world of the American film industry. They were all great professionals – the American team as well as the team from South Africa and Mauritius who were working together on this project. Their swiftness at changing the set up for the different scenes was astonishing. We had to adapt quickly, especially for the meal times which changed according to the schedule: the team could have breakfast at 2 p.m., lunch at 7 p.m. and dinner much later when they were filming at night", says Sylvabelle Angeline, Sales & PR Manager at the hotel, and was responsible for the coordination of the smooth running of the shoot.

The Constance team is proud to have been able to host this shoot in the midst of a pandemic! “Mauritius has assets that should not be overlooked and that we can exploit. Our paradise island would benefit from promotion beside major production houses. Constance Hotels & Resorts has expertise and values, such as generosity, excellence, authenticity, creativity and respect, which facilitate international collaborations. Besides our team members are happy to act as actors! Producers Jeremy Walker and Margaret Malina both said: The place is magical and there are many stories that can be told in this hotel...”, concludes Nadine Comarmond.
