Experience the Thrill at C Mauritius :
The C Kite Festival is back in the Indian Ocean !

It is that time of the year again when the sky over the Indian Ocean transforms into a colourful kaleidoscope – Yes, you guessed it, the C Kite Festival is swooping back in the island!

This trendsetting fiesta, in collaboration with the Mauritius Tourism Promotion Authority (MTPA) and Air Mauritius, held at the lively C Mauritius, brings together professional kite surfers from around the globe, all riding the wave for this unique event set in the in the East coast of Mauritius. Soaring high on the success of last year's inaugural festival, this year's spectacle is set to unfurl from the 14th to 16th of July 2023, flaunting a vibrant mix of high-speed kitesurfing competitions, expert demonstrations, and a whirl of day and evening activities that will make your heart skip a beat!

The C Kite Festival is not just a sporting event, it is also a celebration of the kite art trend that has been making waves around the world! Over the past 30 years, kitesurfing has become one the world's most popular water sports, rolling speed, balance, and a dash of adrenaline into a thrilling spectacle of skill and resilience.

C Mauritius is thrilled to be a part of this wave!

Get ready for a wave of excitement, because the C Kite Festival is not just hosted by any ordinary team. We are pulling out all the stops with former kitesurf world champ, TV Host, Onboard reporter for 2023 Ocean Race, Antoine Auriol! This festival promises participants a 'dive-in headfirst' experience where they can immerse themselves in exhilarating kitesurfing sessions. The participants will be treated to live demos by the world's top kitesurfers, an absolute feast for the eyes!

Headlining this year's professional list are:

- Youri Zoon - 2x World Champion & 2x World vice Champion powered by Brunotti
